

Your Handy Checklist

Documents Required to Get Married in Denmark

Given that paperwork and requirements vary greatly from country to country, please contact us for more specific instructions tailored to your country of origin/residence.

- Power of Attorney - form we provide
- Declaration of Marriage - form we provide
- Passport or EU/EEA ID - copies of all pages + front/back
- Certificate of Residence - documentation (eg. electricity bill) of your residence. Must be translated by authorized translator into German, English, or Danish
- Entry Visa or Residence Permit - If outside of EEA/Switzerland, you will need a visa. If you're part of the EEA, your ID is sufficient. Please contact us for any questions.
- Proof of Relationship - Pictures from different dates/screenshot of social media conversations

Special Cases

- Civil Status Certificate- AKA Letter of Non-Impediment, or Certificate of Marital Status. Must be translated and legalized or Apostille stamped.
- Documentation of Previous Marriage - Proof that your previous marriage ended by divorce, death, or annulment. Must be translated and legalized or Apostille stamped.
- Birth Certificates for Dependents - To show you have one or more common children. Must be translated and legalized or Apostille stamped.